DAV National Convention Update

DAV is monitoring news associated with the Coronavirus situation and guidance from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. At this time, we are proceeding with our plans to host our most important annual gathering as scheduled. If our convention plans change, we will update the convention page and use other DAV channels to inform our members.