SUBJECT: Renewed Partnership with Maximus

I am thrilled to share that Maximus has generously donated $50,000 in support of our national convention, mid-winter conference and the DAV Scholarships program. The company provides technology and citizen engagement solutions to government agencies, which includes the well-known Veterans Evaluation Services (VES) organization under its umbrella.

Many of you may recognize VES as the sponsor of the well-attended "C&P Exams: What You Should Know" seminar at the last several national conventions. The thorough presentation prepared attendees on what to expect during the C&P exam process, a frequently asked question for transitioning service members.

The renewed commitment marks five years in a row that Maximus has enthusiastically supported our mission. Their partnership is a testament to the tireless work and dedication to the cause you display to those inside and outside of DAV. For any questions about the partnership, please contact partners@dav.org.
