DAV's Department and Chapter Websites

Public visibility

Veterans and family members can find your chapter online and learn how to get involved.

No coding required

Pages are built with a simple drag-and-drop block editor — no design or IT skills needed.

Built for members

Purpose-built pages for officers, meetings, bulletins, and photos keep everyone informed.

Free & hosted for you

Every Department and Chapter gets a site at no cost, hosted on the davwebsites.dav.org platform.

Getting Started in the Editor

Every site is managed from the same simple dashboard. Here's the path from login to a published page.

1

Log in

Sign in to your Chapter or Department account at davwebsites.dav.org with your assigned credentials.

2

Choose a page

Select an existing page (Home, Officers, Events...) from the page list on the left or add a new one.

3

Edit content blocks

Click into any block to update text, or add new blocks for images, documents, and more.

4

Publish

Save your changes and publish — updates go live on your public site immediately.

The page tree and dashboard view

Building Pages with Content Blocks

Every page is assembled from simple, reusable blocks — add, remove, or reorder them to fit what your chapter needs to share.

A published page built from these blocks (Dept. of Alabama)

Block	What it's for
Text	Announcements, welcome messages, and page descriptions
Image	Chapter photos, logos, and event pictures
Gallery	Photo albums — multiple images from a meeting or event
Document	Meeting minutes, bylaws, or forms members can download
Calendar	Chapter meeting schedule and upcoming events
Contact / Address Book	Officer names, roles, and contact information

Four Things Every Chapter Site Should Have

These pages keep members informed and show the community your chapter is active.

Bulletin Board

Post chapter and department announcements, news, and updates for members to see first.

Officer Contact List

List current officers with their roles and contact info, so members know who to reach.

Meeting Schedule

Publish the date, time, and location of upcoming chapter meetings and events.

Photo Albums

Document your efforts — upload photos from meetings, service projects, and events.

See It in Action: Cincinnati #1

Not sure where to start? Cincinnati Chapter #1 keeps a consistently active site — use it as a model for your own. Find any Department or Chapter the same way, from the directory below.

Accessing Your Site

You can locate your site by clicking on Departments & Chapters Websites on the top menu bar. If you are looking for a department you will click on the dropdown and select the department you are looking for in the list.

Departments & Chapters

Select the state in which your department or chapter is based.

The search results will show a list of links to the department and chapters webpages for that state.

Department or Chapter state:

What makes it work

Bulletin board updated regularly with current news

Officer list kept current with names and roles

Meeting schedule posted well in advance

Photo albums added after every chapter event

Keeping Your Site Active

A site is only useful if it's current. A few habits keep it working for your members.

Task	How often	Who does it
Post bulletin board updates	Monthly, or as news occurs	Chapter Adjutant / Secretary
Review officer contact list	After each election	Chapter Commander
Update meeting schedule	Quarterly	Chapter Adjutant
Upload event photos	After every event	Any officer or volunteer
Check links & pages load correctly	Twice a year	Webmaster / point of contact

Tip: even small updates — a new photo or a single announcement — signal to visitors that the chapter is active and engaged.
